For the prevention and cure o
BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended
...AH.'s ANTI BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir,

A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthmas, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions.—To parents who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative,

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of

Nervous Disorders	Violent cramps in the stomach and back
Consumptions
Lowness of spirits	Indigestion
Loss of appetite	Melancholy
Impurity of blood	Gout in the stomach
Hysteric'l affection	Pains in the limbs
Inward weaknesses and debility	Relaxations, etc.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pains in the face and neck, etc. etc.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaister.

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion,

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflamatory redness, scurfs, tetters, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water,

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of natural weakness or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops.

The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Infallible Ague and Fever Drops

For the cure of agues, remittent and intermittent fevers.

☞ At the place of sale pamphlets may be had gratis, describing cures performed by the above medicines; the number, importance and respectability of which, fully justify every article of this advertisement.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

THERE came to the stables of the subscriber, on Monday the 1st inst. a person calling himself
Mr. PEYTON,
and obtained a horse and gig on hire, as he said, to go to Ellicott's Mills, and return in the afternoon of the same day; and as he has not yet returned, there is strong reason to believe that his intention is to swindle me out of my property. He is about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, apparently about 25 or 30 years of age, of genteel appearance, and well calculated to deceive.
The horse is a grey, about 15 hands high, 9 or 10 years old, has a switch tail, a speck on the right eye, and moves rapidly. The gig has a green body, carriage and wheels black, the lining of blue cloth, red stuff top, linings, plated double—outside joints.
I will give the above reward for the recovery of the horse and gig, and the detection of the scoundrel, or 20 dollars for the horse and gig only, and all reasonable expenses if delivered to me, No. 26, North Liberty street, Baltimore.

ODE TO MEMORY: BY H. NEELE.

"Man gives up the ghost, and where is he?"—JOB V. —.

And where is he? Not by the side
Whose every want he lov'd to tend;
Not o'er those valleys wandering wide;
Where sweetly lost he oft would wend.
That form belov'd he marks no more—
Those scenes admired no more shall see;
Those scenes are lovely as before,
And she as fair—but where is he?

No, no, the radiance is not dim,
That used to gild his favorite hill—
The pleasures that were dear to him,
Are dear to life and nature still;
But ah! his home is not as fair—
Neglected must his gardens be—
The lilies droop and wither there,
And seem to whisper—where is he?

His was the pomp, the crowded hall—
But where is now this proud display?
His riches, honors, pleasures, all
Desire could frame—but where are they?
And he, as some tall rock that stands
Protected by the circling sea,
Surrounded by admiring bands, [he?
Seem'd proudly strong—and where is

The church-yard bears an added stone—
The fire-side shows a vacant chair;
Here sadness dwells and weeps alone,
And death displays his banner there:
The life is gone, the breath has fled,
And what has been no more shall be;
The well known form, the welcome tread,
Oh! where are they, and where is he?

USEFUL.

CURE FOR THE RHEUMATISM.

Mr Snowden,

By publishing the following recipe in the Gazette, you will no doubt be well paid by the thanks of some from among the thousands who suffer from this painful disease. This recipe has proved very efficacious where the joints are swelled and painful, from the effects of a cold.

"Dissolve one ounce of Gum Camphor in a quart of spirits; put therein as much Sassafras (the bark of the root) as the liquor will cover. Drink from a half to a whole wine glass full, mixed with water, three times a day, (when going to bed, early in the morning, and about eleven o'clock) and rub the parts affected with the same."

HUMOUROUS.

FROM LONDON PAPERS RECEIVED AT N. YORK.

A gentleman lately returned from the East Indies inquiring of a person respecting a friend who was hanged soon after he left England, for forgery, was told that he was dead. 'And did he continue in the grocery business?' cried the former. 'Oh, no,' replied the other, 'he was quite in a different line when he died!'

A poor Irish laborer lately applied to a lady for her interest to be admitted into a hospital, as he was very ill. The lady said she only subscribed to the Lying-in Hospital. 'That's the very one I want,' cried Pat, in an extasy, 'as my landlord threatens to turn me out; and if he does, I have no place to lie in.'

A gentleman lately boasting in company of the quickness of his sight, said, by way of confirming his remark, 'that he saw at that moment a mouse on the top of the monument.' 'I cannot say that I see it,' replied one of the party, 'but I plainly hear it run.'

Lord North, at the close of his life, was affected with the total loss of sight. At Bath, he met Col. B. who had been his warm opponent in the House of Commons, who was also blind. On being introduced to each other, Lord North said, 'Colonel, you and I have been at variance; but I believe there are no two persons in the world, who, after all, would be more glad to see each other.'

MR. HOLLY.

It is with peculiar satisfaction, that we have witnessed the arrival of this learned and distinguished gentleman in Lexington; and we have been almost equally gratified with the cordial reception given to him by our fellow citizens in general. Destined, we fervently hope, to preside over the Transylvania University, his genius, his acquirements, and his personal character would impart to the institution a dignity honorable and attractive beyond example in this country, and give to it an eclat both useful and glorious.—On Wednesday morning, Mr. Holly paid a visit to the University, and addressed to the students a few concise remarks, appropriate, elegant and instructive.—We understand that all who heard him were highly delighted. [Kentucky Gaz.

We are desired to state, that when the Balize, and Bethia and Betsey sailed, New-Orleans was perfectly healthy and free from Yellow Fever or Small Pox, and that the alarming report under the Petersburg head a few days since, is incorrect. [Philad. Gaz.

From the statements made by a variety of individuals in refutation of general Dearborn's charge against the memory of general Putnam, we are convinced that Putnam was actively engaged at the battle of Bunker's Hill, and that general Dearborn's account is entirely false. We cannot possibly conceive Dearborn's motive; it cannot be jealousy of the military reputation of our revolutionary worthy; for however deficient Dearborn may be in good sense, we can scarcely think it possible that his late military station can have elated him so much, as to make him presume, for a moment, that his name can ever be placed by the side of old Israel Putnam's. [Pittsburg Gaz.

A new Presbyterian church has lately been built in the town of Savannah; at a sale of the pews, which took place on the 11th instant, the amount of sales was sixty two thousand dollars, and yet all the pews in the gallery and some on the lower floor remained unsold. Such a liberal spirit in promoting the interest of religion, is truly commendable.

For the last three or four days, the mercury has stood at 95 in the shade, at from 2 to 3 o'clock in the afternoon. On Friday last the thermometer was placed in the sun, when the mercury almost instantly rose to 125. There is seldom in any year perhaps warmer weather here in any month than in June; and we believe the present month, as far as it has progressed, has been as warm as was almost ever experienced here at the same period, and the continued dry weather added thereto, has put the vegetable kingdom to a pretty severe trial—indeed many gardens may without exaggeration be said to be nearly burnt up.

[Augusta Herald, June 9.

MR. CLAY, with his family, arrived at his residence in Kentucky, from Washington on the 23d of May. The citizens of Lexington, and that neighborhood, have invited him to partake of a public dinner, "as a testimonial of respect for his principles, and talents, and of their approbation of his exertions in support of the cause of South American freedom and independence." [N. York Columbian.

A Jamaica paper remarks with great severity on admiral Popham, for his civility to several black men who arrived at the island with despatches from St. Domingo. It is remarked—"He received them. He invited them to dinner! They dined with him and with his family! He placed his wife between two of these black men! Nay, he sent his own carriage with white servants, to convey them from the landing place to his house! and afterwards to re-convey them from his house to the water side!" This conduct is said to be in opposition to the known policy of the British government; degrading to the admiral and company present—dangerous to the safety of the island, and meriting the indignation of its insulted white inhabitants. [Ib.

MICHIGAN TERRITORY.

We find in an eastern paper, an advertisement relative to the public lands in the Michigan Territory. This advertisement is published by a committee of the citizens of Detroit, composed of gov. Cass, judge Woodward, and eight others. The following extract will shew the object of the citizens: [Ib.

"The lands of the United States within this territory, are by a proclamation of the president, to be offered for sale at this place on the first Mondays of July, September and November next. Not an acre of public land has ever been sold in the country, and the whole is open to the enterprizing farmer for choice and purchase. It is confidently believed, that no part of the U. States offers greater inducements for settlement and improvement than this does. The fertility of the soil, the temperature of the climate and the general healthiness of the country, are equal to any part of the western states, and produce of all kinds finds a ready and good market. The great inland seas, which bound three sides of the territory, furnish inexhaustible supplies of excellent fish, and will cause an activity in commerce and business which will always ensure a demand for the surplus produce of the country. The contemplated canal in New-York will open an easy avenue to the ocean, and even now, the price of transporting goods from Albany to Detroit is but four dollars and fifty cents per hundred. A steam boat is now building in Buffalo, which will probably be ready for sailing in June, and will greatly facilitate the access and departure to and from the country. The United States' lands are sold in tracts of one hundred and sixty acres, at two dollars per acre, with a payment of one-fourth part of the purchase money at the time of sale, and a credit of five years for the residue."

From the New-York Columbian.

We are much gratified in extracting from the New-Hampshire Gazette, the following letter from Estwick Evans, esq. at Detroit, to his friend in New-Hampshire.—This gentleman, it appears, is the pedestrian, whose dress and accoutrements drew so much attention, on his journey, as to have given occasion for remark in the Newspapers. The tour displays a hardihood and perseverance highly honorable—and his letter speaks a language of acute observation and high intelligence.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in Detroit, to his friend in Hopkinton, N. H. dated March 23, 1818.

"I arrived here a few days since, after marching about one thousand miles—the principal part of the way through deep snows and bogs, and over many a tedious mountain. But notwithstanding my exposures both by night and by day, I am in perfect health. The weight of my gun, ammunition, &c. was about 40 pounds. By visiting Albany, Niagara Falls, several forts, battle grounds, Indian tribes, &c. my route was rendered very curious. Beside, I travelled on the American side of Lake Erie, a circumstance increased the distance of my tour to this place, compared to the Canada side, one hundred miles. I was very unfortunate too in reaching Detroit before the conclusion of winter. By this circumstance I was obliged to pass through the Black Swamp, a distance of forty miles in the very worst season; and to cross about twenty wide, deep and rapid creeks upon floating logs!—The rapids of the Sandusky and Miami of the Lake also presented many difficulties. The whole route from Buffalo to Detroit is, comparatively, a perfect wilderness; and I acknowledge with gratitude that the hand of Providence preserved me amidst a thousand dangers. In the vicinity of the Miami Swamp, about 12 o'clock at night, my dogs contended with a herd of wolves and were both slain. I should have followed them, and perhaps have shared the same fate, but an excruciating tooth ache, which almost deprived of the sense of hearing confined me to my tent. The winter in the West has been remarkably severe. The whole country excepting the ever-greens, presented the aspect of perpetual congelation; and many persons on the Lakes and in the woods were frozen to death. I myself was considerably frozen.

In relation to the falls of Niagara, I was much disappointed, both with respect to the height and the quantity of water propelled over them in a given time. There is however, in their external roar a nameless solitude. The Rapids, first above the fall, excited much more interest:—Dark, furious and perplexed, they rush towards the falls as though eager for destruction. Here the imagination at once becomes aroused, with a sombre yet vivid glance surveys the opposite and renowned plains of Chippewa and Bridgewater; then returning to the Rapids, it hears in the voice of their fury, the half-drowned vow of the warrior, and sees in their mist, his falling steed and brandished falchion. The trees near the Falls were all prostrated by the weight of congealed vapor, and seem to worship most devoutly, the great author of this grand spectacle. A beautiful rainbow arched the river below, and numerous gulls were obscurely seen soaring through the thick exhalations which filled the whole space to the Canada side. Charon and his boat only were wanted to complete the scene.

How great are the advantages of solitude! and how impressive is the grand in nature! The force of thought and luxury of sentiment which the wilderness inspired are indescribable. Here man feels, at once, humble and exhalted. Silence, with a voice of thunder, maintains the cause of virtue, and the human soul experiences the tranquil ardour of immortal hopes.

In travelling over a part of the great western turnpike in the state of New-York, and in collecting information as to her settlements and business on the Mohawk, &c. I was led to make some political calculations. The state of N York is of itself a mighty republic.—Her moral and physical energies her agriculture, manufactures and commerce, and her individual enterprize and public spirit, render her omnipotent. She could contend alone and unassisted with Great Britain. What then is the aggregate force of all our states and territories? The contemplation of even their potential and probable physical power, within a short succession of years, presents such a manifold ratio as to overwhelm the boldest calculator. But the moral energies of the country, will no doubt, become proportionably less. The friends of political virtue, however, must not be discouraged. The mora hero can do much towards stemming the torrent of political corruption. Besides, the vast service over which the elements of corruption will spread themselves, will render it for a long course of time comparatively harmless; and beyond this period, the influence of some heavenly star may give to ambition and love of power a spirit and a nobler aim. In relation to this topic the prevailing spirit of emigration from the maritime to the inland frontier will have a very beneficial influence. In a public point of view great and permanent advantages will arise from the settlement of the western states and territories; but individuals from the east are not always benefitted by a removal. The principal advantages are the profits on the purchase of new lands, a quicker climate, and better crops obtained with less labor. Those who can live well by their industry at home, will do better to remain where they are. By a removal, they lose a climate to which they are accustomed, good society, an opportunity to educate their children, and scenes to which their "hearts untravelled" will often fondly turn. The sons of Newhampshire will never forget her mountains.

After arriving at Lewistown, I marched down to Fort Niagara. Colonel Pinkney who commands there, is a man of noble aspect and elegant manners.—From him and his lady I received a hospitable and kind reception. I was surprised to find that the river Niagara and Lake Ontario never freeze. It is a fact of which I was ignorant. The cause of it is not easily ascertained. On the opposite side of the Niagara is the place where General Brock fell; on this, is the monument of Col. Christie. Interesting circumstances!

In travelling, in a snow storm, through a dreary wilderness, I discovered towards night an Indian path. For the sake of adventure, I followed it; and after travelling three miles in a very serpentine, course, I arrived, when dark, at a village occupied by the Tandanwandey tribe of Indians. They were just going to their counsel house to commence a war dance; a custom which they will not relinquish. This tribe are still deplorably superstitious. A few days before my arrival among them they sacrificed two white dogs to their deity, after decorating them with paints & ribbons, and dancing around them. The Tandanwandeys worship the sun, and bury their dead in the morning in order that the deceased may have time to reach his departed relations before night. We need not go to the islands of the Pacific ocean for singular manners and customs. But notwithstanding the ignorance of this tribe, in one respect they leave civilized men far behind them. They will not allow any spiritous liquors to be brought into their village. This is a piece of policy and self-denial of which even Sparta might have been proud.

I have conferred upon myself the honor of visiting Governor Cass. He is a fine man, quite accessible and attentive to strangers. Detroit is becoming a great place for business; its society is rapidly improving, and is one of the most healthy places in North America. In a few days I shall continue my tour, and when I write again will refer to my journal for some interesting records."

We have been favored by a friend with Paris papers to April 27, and those of London to the 23d, received by the Roxana, from Havre. The following paragraphs contain the principal articles of intelligence which they present:—

The Emperor and Empress of Austria, left their capital on a tour into Dalmatia, April 10th—they were to pass through Gratz, Laybach, Triente, Vienne, &c.—The Arch-Duke Louis, represents the Emperor in his absence. The Arch-Duke Rainser, Viceroy, of Lombardy and Venice departed from Vienna for Milan, April 16.

Madame Krudener has arrived at Riga, and there received an order not to proceed to St. Petersburg, but to take up her residence for the present at Revel.

[Madame Krudener is a professed Prophetess. She was employed some years since by the Allies to prophecy against Bonaparte. Since his political life has been at an end, she has, by her prophecies given the Allies much trouble. She was about a year ago ordered out of Switzerland—she is now prohibited going to Petersburg and ordered to reside at Revel.—Phil. Dem. Press.]

The number of deaths in Paris, which in 1816 amounted to but 19,801, in 1817 has increased to 21,381, a difference of more than 1521.

Admitting but one half the drowned who have been taken up, to have caused their own death, the number of suicides in 1817 is 335.

The French Budget for the year had been presented to the chamber of Deputies, and the debates upon it had been very warm; but the government appears to have a considerable majority in its favor.

The King has communicated to the Chamber of Peers, confidentially the result of a negociation with the Ministers of the Allied Powers.

Prices of French stocks April 27—5 per cent 67 30 to 67 60; Bank Shares 1553.

French Creek Boarding School.

The following is published for the information of Parents:

HAVING long believed that a School on a plan different from most others in many respects, would be beneficial to society, and apprehending that with all its cares, and the responsibility inseparable from such a concern, I could more cheerfully devote my time to the education of children than to any other business, I have concluded to establish a BOARDING SCHOOL for GIRLS.—With this view I have purchased the FARMER CHARLES FARM, four miles east of the yellow springs, on the Norristown and Philadelphia road, situated in Pikeland and Vincent townships, Chester county, twenty-seven miles from Philadelphia, combining many conveniencies for the support of such an institution; and having let the farm, etc. in a way calculated to supply the family with provisions, I propose to devote my attention, with the aid of suitable assistants, to the education of the children who may be placed under my care.

In selecting the pupils, it is not proposed to be governed entirely by their ages, nor to require that they shall all be members of the religious society of Friends; but as the school rules will be very few in number and very simple, it is my wish that none may be sent contrary to their own inclination, nor any one who would not be likely to be good examples to the other scholars, and treat them with kindness and affection.

The price for board and tuition will be two hundred Dollars per annum, one quarter always to be paid in advance—no restrictions respecting the kind of clothing are intended, nor respecting the frequency of the changes that parents may require; the washing will be charged at the ordinary price per dozen—children may be admitted for one quarter only, and such as are entered for a longer period, may nevertheless be removed at the expiration of any quarter.—The communication with Philadelphia will be frequent and easy by stage, and a house of entertainment kept by the farmer for the accommodation of persons having business at the school.

Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, English Grammar, Geography and the use of Maps and globes, will be taught, together with such other branches as the progress of the children and experience may render expedient. The school to open the first of the 5th month next. For further information apply to Edward Stabler, Alexandria, or to

The woodland on both of these farms is covered with a fine growth of red oak and hickory, and the soil, what is denominated first rate tobacco land—the whole of the cleared land is under good enclosures, has had the advantage of a clover lay, and has afforded as strong evidences of its adaptation to the Plaister of Paris, as any land in the state. November 27

Dr. Thomson's System of Chemistry.

IN FOUR VOLUMES OCTAVO.

THE preceding edition of Dr. Thomson's Chemistry, had acquired so much reputation both in England and upon the continent of Europe, that a new edition, comprising the new facts with which the science had been enriched, and the new views of the subject which extended knowledge had suggested as indispensable, was eagerly looked for by the scientific world. A new edition has accordingly appeared, wherein the former edition of five volumes has been condensed into four.

All the new discoveries, and all the new theories of Chemical Phænomena, have been considered and embraced in the present improved edition: so that it is indispensable to the chemical student, as presenting the only condensed view of the changes and alterations in chemical doctrine, which the discoveries of the last ten years have suggested. No apology therefore can be necessary for reprinting such a book in this country; for the press does not furnish a substitute for it. But, there is so much theoretical suggestion—so much abstruse calculation—so much fact of dubious authority—and so much dubious validity—that notes and illustrations are absolutely necessary, not merely to render the book more useful, but more intelligible.

Under these impressions, I thought fit to write notes in illustration (and sometimes in contradiction) of the work itself, rather than to make any abridgement of it. Those who wish to know the modern views of chemical science, must peruse it; and to very many who will be anxious to study it, elucidation will be necessary. I have endeavoured to supply these, to the best of my ability; regardless whether my own opinions are in dissonance or coincidence with those of my author; leaving to the reader to decide between us.

The work will be published, with notes and illustrations, in four volumes 8vo.

THOMAS COOPER, M. D.

CONDITIONS.

I. The work will be printed on a superfine paper, with a new small pica letter; and will be published early in the ensuing summer.

II. It will be illustrated with a number of cuts, of which several have been necessarily added to the London edition.

III. It will be delivered to subscribers at $12—to non-subscribers at $14, in boards. The London edition sells for $18.

Subscriptions will be received by

Fan-Sash Making.

METAL FAN-SASHES, of various descriptions, will be made by the subscriber, at his shop, lower end of Duke street. The want of a Metal Fan-Sash Manufactory in Alexandria, has hitherto been severely felt by builders and others, who have been compelled to make use of wood, which is neither elegant nor durable. The various forms into which the metal can be shaped have given it a decided superiority, and the difference in the price is very trifling. The subscriber has been at considerable expence in procuring the necessary preparations, and relies on public enterprise for success in the undertaking.

JAMES T. HOLLAND.

Absconded,

ON the night of the 15th inst. my negro man JOHN, or JOHN ALLEN, (as he calls himself)—he is well known, having lived with me for several years, and has travelled a good deal with me. He is a very plausible fellow, about 30 years of age, slender made, and about 5 feet 5 inches high, rather of a yellow complexion, but the complete negro mouth and nose—has a small scar on one of his cheeks—has lately had a sore on his right leg, directly on the shin bone, which leg has the appearance of being much scored at a former period by disease or the small pox. His hat was made and stamped by Rogers of Baltimore.—A reward of 10 dollars will be given if taken in the town or county of Alexandria, 20 if in the county of Washington or Fairfax, 50 if in Baltimore or state of Maryland, and 100 if in Philadelphia or the state of Pennsylvania, and in like proportion if at any other places, with all reasonable charges for bringing him here and securing him in jail.

May 18 JAMES SANDERSON

James Kennedy & Son,

RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from LEE's MEDICINE STORE, No. 46, Maiden lane, New-York, a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:

Hamilton's Worm destroying Lozenges,

Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Teres or large round worm; the Ascarides or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitine or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tænia or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fetid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended

HARN's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficatious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir,

A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthmas, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions.—To parents who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative,

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of

Nervous Disorders	Violent cramps in the stomach and back
Consumptions
Lowness of spirits	Indigestion
Loss of appetite	Melancholy
Impurity of b'ood	Gout in the stomach
Hysteric'l affection	Pains in the limbs
Inward weaknesses and debility	Relaxations, etc.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc. etc.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaister.

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion,

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflamatory redness, scurfs, tetters, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water,

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of natural weakness or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops.

The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Infallible Ague and Fever Drops

For the cure of agues, remittent and intermittent fevers.
